

KEITH DAVID

Actor - Singer - Voice Actor

Keith David is currently performing a return engagement, by popular demand, in the play Paul Robeson in Los Angeles. Recently he sang in concert at Carnegie Hall and the Cotton Club.

With over 200 film, television and stage credits to his name, Keith David continues to exemplify the character of Hollywood's greatest actors with a humble, un-trying ability to remain in demand.

Some of his dozens of on-screen feature film roles include Oliver Stone's Academy Award-winning Platoon; Clint Eastwood's Bird; and Paul Haggis' Academy Award-winning Crash, as well as There's Something About Mary; Armageddon; Pitch Black; The Chronicles of Riddick; Requiem for a Dream; Mr. and Mrs. Smith; and Barbershop. Keith's most recent project is Sony Pictures Cloud Atlas based on the bestselling novel, scheduled for release October 2012.

On television, Keith's recent project was The Cape which premiered on NBC in January 2011. Some of David's numerous acting credits are guest arcs on ER and 7th Heaven; appearances on Law & Order and CSI; and LeVar Burton's telefilm The Tiger Woods Story, for which he received an Emmy Award nomination.

Noted for his deep, commanding voice, another dimension of Keith's career holds him as an Emmy winning voice over artist. Internationally known as the voice behind "Goliath" from Gargoyles and the title character in the Spawn animated series, he provided the voice for "Vhailor" in the video game Planescape: Torment and "The Arbiter" for Halo 2, and the wildly popular Call To Duty. Other voiceover credits include the NBC cult hit series Community.

A&E cable series City Confidential and the U.S. Navy television commercials.

Keith has been heard recently as the new voice of Smooth Jazz, 94.7 The WAVE, the Original Smooth Jazz radio station out of Los Angeles and streaming worldwide.

Keith's strong working relationship with Ken Burns made him the narrative voice for three of Ken's epic documentaries. Last year the segment A Necessary War from Burns' miniseries The War, earned David an Emmy award to add to his first, previously won for Unforgivable Blackness: The Rise and Fall of Jack Johnson. The miniseries Jazz also earned David an Emmy nomination. Keith's voice can also be heard in Disney's Princess and The Frog, released in December 2009. Set in New Orleans, Keith's character is the jazz singing, evil nemesis "Dr. Facilier". Other cast members include Oprah, Terrence Howard, Anika Noni Rose and John Goodman. Prior to that, Keith could be heard as "the Black Cat" in the Focus Feature film Coraline. The cast includes the voices of Dakota Fanning, Teri Hatcher and Jennifer Saunders.

As a native New Yorker, Mr. David has extensive stage experience. His studies in voice and theater at the prestigious Juilliard School of Drama garnered him a 1992 Tony® Award nomination for Best Supporting Actor in a Musical for his role in the classic Broadway play "Jelly's Last Jam". Some additional stage credits are: Sarah Pia Anderson's revival of Hedda Gabler, and Lloyd Richards' original Broadway staging of the late August Wilson's Seven Guitars.

Also an accomplished singer/songwriter with his own band, Keith has drafted some of today's top producers and most popular performers to join him on his debut album, scheduled for release this year. The album features both traditional and contemporary jazz. He is currently performing with symphonies and orchestras across the country.
