

TRÍ THE NEW IRISH TENORS

Michael McCorry Rose

TENOR

Michael McCorry Rose was most recently seen on Broadway in the Tony Award winning musical A Gentleman's Guide To Love and Murder. Prior to that he starred on Broadway as "Fiyero" in the smash hit musical Wicked. In New York, Michael has appeared in concert at Jazz at Lincoln Center, Avery Fischer Hall, Symphony Space, Birdland and Feinstein's/54 Below. He regularly appears in concert with Academy, Grammy and Tony Award winning composer Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Godspell, Pippin, Disney's The Hunchback of Notre Dame), their most recent concert was filmed for PBS's Great American Songbook Concert Series at NJPAC and aired in the summer of 2016.

Michael has performed with symphonies and concert orchestras across the United States, most recently starring in a symphonic concert of Chess with the Temecula Valley Symphony in California. Internationally, Michael has performed in concert at the Adelaide Music Festival in Australia, for the U.S. State Department in Nairobi, Kenya and in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

His theatrical credits include roles at respected regional theaters such as The Paper Mill Playhouse, Yale Repertory Theater, Primary Stages, Capital Repertory Theater and Project Shaw in New York City. Originally from San Diego, he holds a B.A. in Mass Communication Studies from the University of California, Los Angeles, where he appeared in Carol Burnett's directorial debut of Once Upon A Mattress.

